Brae Burn Pairs In Golf Tourney

A special tournament for couples was staged recently by the Brae Burn Women's Golf Association.
Capturing low gross honor with a 76 were Jack and Pat Shafer while Jack Welcher and Kayla Bernheim posted low net of 69. Runnersup in the net division were Doug and Marilyn Spencer with 69, Doug and Nancy Smith with 70 and Bud DeLavergne and Marty Beardsley with 72.
Sharing honors for driving closest to the pin on the ninth hole were Charlie Wolf and Pete Derrenbacher.

Thirty people from four generations of the Newar community in Nepal may share a two or three-story house, with livestock and stored produce occupying the ground floor, says National Geographic.

DANSVILLE Library Lines

By Teresa Canuti

As summer ends, so do our summer programs for children. Reading Rainbow Book Club had 19 participants who read 324 books. Summer Fun Films had an average attendance of 47 children and adults during the 10-week program. Mrs. Janet Meyers was our "Story Lady" for the story book program attended by three-, four- and five-year-olds. Her theme this summer was "Puppets", and the children had an opportunity to make hand and finger puppets and to have them perform during story time.

With the end of summer, the library will resume its Saturday hours. Beginning Sept. 12, we will be open from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in addition to our regular operating hours.

It has been a busy summer, and on Aug. 10, we recorded a total of 521 items circulating; that is nearly one item per minute! The average daily circulation during the month was 294 items. As our readers return from vacation and fill in the last weeks before school begins, the library seems the most popular place to be.

Additional recent memorial gifts received by the library are as follows: "Baseball's Hall of Fame," in memory of Myra Shafer given by Betty and Mike Depew; "Trojan Gold" by Elizabeth Peters, given by the Frances P. Reilly Memorial Book Fund; "Those Who Fall" by John Muirhead, given by the Gordon Leven Memorial Book Fund; "Black Beauty" by Anna Sewell, given in memory of Phyllis A. Boyd by Paul, Michelle, Pauly, Stephanie, Daniel and Melissa Batz.

Also, "Off the Beaten Path" from Reader's Digest, given by Ron and Rosemary Christopher in memory of Bus and Shorty Pierce; one year subscription to "Coin World Magazine", given in memory of Richard Harvey by the Dansville Area Coin and Stamp Club; a National Geographic globe and stand, given in memory of Dr. Alden Townsend; "Countdown To Better Bridge" by H.W. Kelsey, given in memory of Jeanette Sorg by Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaForce; "Miller's International Antiques Price Guide" by Judith Miller, given in memory of Eric Smith by Mr. and Mrs. A.M. Holroyd.

Also, in memory of Carl Vogt, "A Day In the Life of America," given by the Sendall Family; "McClane's Game Fish of North America", by A.J. McClance, given
